

The ethnic cleansing of Palestinians, which began in 1948 when 750,000 were driven from their homes, continues today.

▶ Home demolitions

Since 2008 more than 2400 Palestinian houses and structures have been demolished in the West Bank and East Jerusalem, displacing more than 4400 Palestinians, including thousands of children.

▶ Discriminatory residency rights

If you are Palestinian – even if your family has lived in Jerusalem for centuries – if Israel declares ‘the centre of your life is no longer Jerusalem’ they can take your right to live in Jerusalem away. Since 1967 more than 14,000 Palestinians had their Jerusalem residency revoked by the Israeli authorities.

▶ Exclusion

If Palestinians don’t have a Jerusalem pass they are not allowed to enter the city. Around 4 million Palestinians are prohibited from entering East Jerusalem freely – although tourists and Israeli citizens are allowed.

▶ Israel’s Praver Plan

In September 2011, the Israeli government approved the Praver Plan for mass expulsion of the Palestinian Bedouin community in the Naqab (Negev). When fully implemented this plan will result in the forced displacement of up to 70,000 Arab Bedouin citizens of Israel and the destruction of 35 “unrecognized” villages.

▶ Palestinians in exile and the refugee camps

When Palestinians were forcibly displaced in 1948 they were prevented from returning by the newly formed state of Israel. Israel continues to prevent people of indigenous Palestinian heritage from settling in their homeland to this day – which is in direct contravention of international law which has repeatedly reaffirmed the right of Palestinians to return home.

The ethnic cleansing of Palestinians, which began in 1948 when 750,000 were driven from their homes, continues today.

▶ Home demolitions

Since 2008 more than 2400 Palestinian houses and structures have been demolished in the West Bank and East Jerusalem, displacing more than 4400 Palestinians, including thousands of children.

▶ Discriminatory residency rights

If you are Palestinian – even if your family has lived in Jerusalem for centuries – if Israel declares ‘the centre of your life is no longer Jerusalem’ they can take your right to live in Jerusalem away. Since 1967 more than 14,000 Palestinians had their Jerusalem residency revoked by the Israeli authorities.

▶ Exclusion

If Palestinians don’t have a Jerusalem pass they are not allowed to enter the city. Around 4 million Palestinians are prohibited from entering East Jerusalem freely – although tourists and Israeli citizens are allowed.

▶ Israel’s Praver Plan

In September 2011, the Israeli government approved the Praver Plan for mass expulsion of the Palestinian Bedouin community in the Naqab (Negev). When fully implemented this plan will result in the forced displacement of up to 70,000 Arab Bedouin citizens of Israel and the destruction of 35 “unrecognized” villages.

▶ Palestinians in exile and the refugee camps

When Palestinians were forcibly displaced in 1948 they were prevented from returning by the newly formed state of Israel. Israel continues to prevent people of indigenous Palestinian heritage from settling in their homeland to this day – which is in direct contravention of international law which has repeatedly reaffirmed the right of Palestinians to return home.

Mahmoud

Mahmoud was born and raised in Jerusalem but has now been refused residency rights by Israeli authorities because he lived for a time in the USA.

Mahmoud

Mahmoud was born and raised in Jerusalem but has now been refused residency rights by Israeli authorities because he lived for a time in the USA.

Leila and Raed

Leila and Raed have been married for 16 years now, but they have not been able to live together because although Leila was born in Jerusalem; Raed is from near Bethlehem, and Israel will not allow 'family reunification'; West Bankers are not allowed to settle in Jerusalem with their spouses. When their daughter died at the age of four months, the Israeli authorities gave Raed a one-day permit to attend the funeral, but he had to be back the same evening.

Leila and Raed

Leila and Raed have been married for 16 years now, but they have not been able to live together because although Leila was born in Jerusalem; Raed is from near Bethlehem, and Israel will not allow 'family reunification'; West Bankers are not allowed to settle in Jerusalem with their spouses. When their daughter died at the age of four months, the Israeli authorities gave Raed a one-day permit to attend the funeral, but he had to be back the same evening.

What you can do!

Join Palestine Solidarity Campaign to help build the movement for justice for Palestinians

www.palestinecampaign.org/join

Write to your MP to call on the UK Government to act against Israel's ethnic cleansing

www.palestinecampaign.org/campaign/ethnic-cleansing

Donate your money or your time

Support justice, freedom and human rights, and oppose Israel's racism, apartheid and ethnic cleansing

www.palestinecampaign.org

What you can do!

Join Palestine Solidarity Campaign to help build the movement for justice for Palestinians

www.palestinecampaign.org/join

Write to your MP to call on the UK Government to act against Israel's ethnic cleansing

www.palestinecampaign.org/campaign/ethnic-cleansing

Donate your money or your time

Support justice, freedom and human rights, and oppose Israel's racism, apartheid and ethnic cleansing

www.palestinecampaign.org

