WHAT'S HAPPENED?

Since October 2015 the Co-operative bank have closed the accounts of over 25 organisations working for Palestine.

These decisions were made unilaterally and with little or no explanation.

That's not what we call ethical.

TAKE ACTION

The Co-op bank have built their reputation as an ethical bank. They claim values of honesty and transparency.

Take action today and tell the Co-op bank their decision to close the accounts of organisations working for Palestine isn't your idea of ethics!
