

A graphic featuring a black silhouette of the map of Israel and the West Bank, with a red '0' and a green '7' forming the number '70'. To the right of the '0' is the text 'YEARS OF' in black, and below it is 'NAKBA' in large, bold, green, hand-painted letters. The background is a cracked, white, stone-like texture.

70 YEARS OF NAKBA

Between 1947 and 1949, Zionist paramilitary forces ethnically cleansed and eradicated over 500 villages and towns in Palestine, displacing 750,000 Palestinians and taking over 78% of the land. Palestinians call this process the 'Nakba', or catastrophe.

Today, an estimated 7 million Palestinian refugees are scattered around the world. 5 million live in refugee camps in the West Bank, Gaza, Lebanon, Jordan, and Syria.

These refugees are denied their right of return by Israel; a right demanded by tens of thousands of Palestinians protesting in Gaza over the last four weeks. To date, at least 45 protesters at the 'Great March of Return' have been killed inside Gaza by Israeli snipers, including journalists and children. A further 5,500 protesters have been injured; over a third with live ammunition.

This treatment of Palestinian civilians is not exceptional; the Nakba did not end in 1948.

Israel routinely uses lethal violence against Palestinian civilians; demolishes Palestinian homes and villages; imposes apartheid policies upon Palestinians in Israel and the occupied territories; colonises Palestinian land through unlawful settlement building; and imprisons both adults in children in a military detention system notorious for torture and ill-treatment.

A graphic featuring a black silhouette of the map of Israel and the West Bank, with a red '0' and a green '7' forming the number '70'. To the right of the '0' is the text 'YEARS OF' in black, and below it is 'NAKBA' in large, bold, green, hand-painted letters. The background is a cracked, white, stone-like texture.

70 YEARS OF NAKBA

Between 1947 and 1949, Zionist paramilitary forces ethnically cleansed and eradicated over 500 villages and towns in Palestine, displacing 750,000 Palestinians and taking over 78% of the land. Palestinians call this process the 'Nakba', or catastrophe.

Today, an estimated 7 million Palestinian refugees are scattered around the world. 5 million live in refugee camps in the West Bank, Gaza, Lebanon, Jordan, and Syria.

These refugees are denied their right of return by Israel; a right demanded by tens of thousands of Palestinians protesting in Gaza over the last four weeks. To date, at least 45 protesters at the 'Great March of Return' have been killed inside Gaza by Israeli snipers, including journalists and children. A further 5,500 protesters have been injured; over a third with live ammunition.

This treatment of Palestinian civilians is not exceptional; the Nakba did not end in 1948.

Israel routinely uses lethal violence against Palestinian civilians; demolishes Palestinian homes and villages; imposes apartheid policies upon Palestinians in Israel and the occupied territories; colonises Palestinian land through unlawful settlement building; and imprisons both adults in children in a military detention system notorious for torture and ill-treatment.

In May of every year, Palestinians and people of conscience around the world come together in recognition of this ongoing catastrophe.

We invite you to join us as we mark 70 years of Nakba, and call for justice, equality and the right of return.

In May of every year, Palestinians and people of conscience around the world come together in recognition of this ongoing catastrophe.

We invite you to join us as we mark 70 years of Nakba, and call for justice, equality and the right of return.

TAKE ACTION

Visit our website, where you can download a resource pack to support your events and activities, find factsheets on the Nakba and Right of Return, and download social media graphics. You'll also find information about local actions taking place around the UK throughout May.

www.palestinecampaign.org/70-years-nakba

TAKE ACTION

Visit our website, where you can download a resource pack to support your events and activities, find factsheets on the Nakba and Right of Return, and download social media graphics. You'll also find information about local actions taking place around the UK throughout May.

www.palestinecampaign.org/70-years-nakba

“Expelling people from their homes is a war crime. As well as preventing them from returning. Israel didn’t just commit a war crime in 1948 but continues to commit one to this day.”

– Salman Abu Sitta, author,
Atlas Of Palestine 1948

Web: www.palestinecampaign.org
Facebook: palestinesolidarityuk
Twitter: PSCUpdates
Email: info@palestinecampaign.org

“Expelling people from their homes is a war crime. As well as preventing them from returning. Israel didn’t just commit a war crime in 1948 but continues to commit one to this day.”

– Salman Abu Sitta, author,
Atlas Of Palestine 1948

Web: www.palestinecampaign.org
Facebook: palestinesolidarityuk
Twitter: PSCUpdates
Email: info@palestinecampaign.org