

Friends of Sabeel UK Conferences 2017

Hope in the midst of Hopelessness

Tuesday 6th June, 6.30-9pm

The Cafe, St Martin in the Bull Ring, Edgbaston Street, Birmingham, B5 5BB

Hear about the reality of life in Occupied Palestine from Omar Haramy, one of the leaders of Sabeel Jerusalem and a driving force in sustaining Hope in a situation that to so many seems Hopeless

Omar leads the Sabeel Ecumenical Liberation Theology Centre in Jerusalem and is raising a young family amidst the uncertainty of the future.

There will also be:

An opportunity to watch the Balfour Project film, 'Britain in Palestine 1917-1948' and consider an alternative to the UK Government's plans to 'celebrate' 100 years since the Balfour Declaration in November of this year.

Information about Kairos Britain's advocacy programme to encourage a Morally Responsible Investment strategy for the various Church denominations in the UK.

An opportunity for members of Friends of Sabeel UK to share their views and thoughts in advance of the AGM on 17th June.
